Designer Life will provide students with information prior to commencement of services including any subcontracting arrangements affecting the delivery of training and/or assessment.

Designer Life takes a systematic approach to establish and recognise the needs of each client. It is a requirement that all staff members do their utmost to meet the needs of students.   - estimated duration of the services

Prior to the transfer to another RTO, affected students will be formally notified of the arrangements, and an agreement to those arrangements, including any refund of fees, will be obtained.

FEEDBACK AND CONTINUOUS IMPROVEMENT

The CEO recognises that opportunities for improvement may arise in every aspect of business and has developed an organisational culture within Designer Life to capitalise on these opportunities for improved practice.

Designer Life supplies feedback forms to all students at the end of each program as an important and valuable factor in monitoring and developing business practices and quality training, ensuring the ever-changing needs and expectations of clients are being met. The CEO also welcomes feedback from other improvement opportunities such as risk assessment, student suggestions, complaints and appeals, validation sessions and audit reports.

As a student with Designer Life, your feedback is critical to our continuous improvement policy. Along with the formal feedback mentioned earlier, students are encouraged to give feedback throughout their enrolment.

In order to encourage and achieve continuous improvement based on the collection of the above-mentioned data, Designer Life has developed a best practice register which includes a written record of all improvement strategies.

ACCESS AND EQUITY

Designer Life is committed to practicing fairness and providing an equal opportunity for all current and potential students to access and participate in learning, and to achieve their learning outcomes regardless of age, gender, cultural or ethnic background, disability, sexuality, language skills, literacy or numeracy level, unemployment, imprisonment, or remote location that may present a barrier to access, or any other perceived difference in class or category, including ensuring cultural safety for First Nations people.

Student Handbook

clients from accessing its services. Designer Life will address access and equity matters as a nominated part of operational duties.

Designer Life has developed this handbook to guide and inform all staff and students in their obligations regarding access and equity. Upon induction into Designer Life, all staff are provided with copies of the policies which they must adhere to throughout all their operations as a Designer Life staff member. Students are made aware of the access and equity policy via this handbook and informed of their rights to receive access and equity support, and to request further information.

Designer Life access and equity policies are in place to ensure that training opportunities are offered to all people on an equal and fair basis in all circumstances, irrespective of their gender, culture, linguistic background, race, socio-economic background, disability, age, marital status, pregnancy, sexual orientation, or carer's responsibilities.

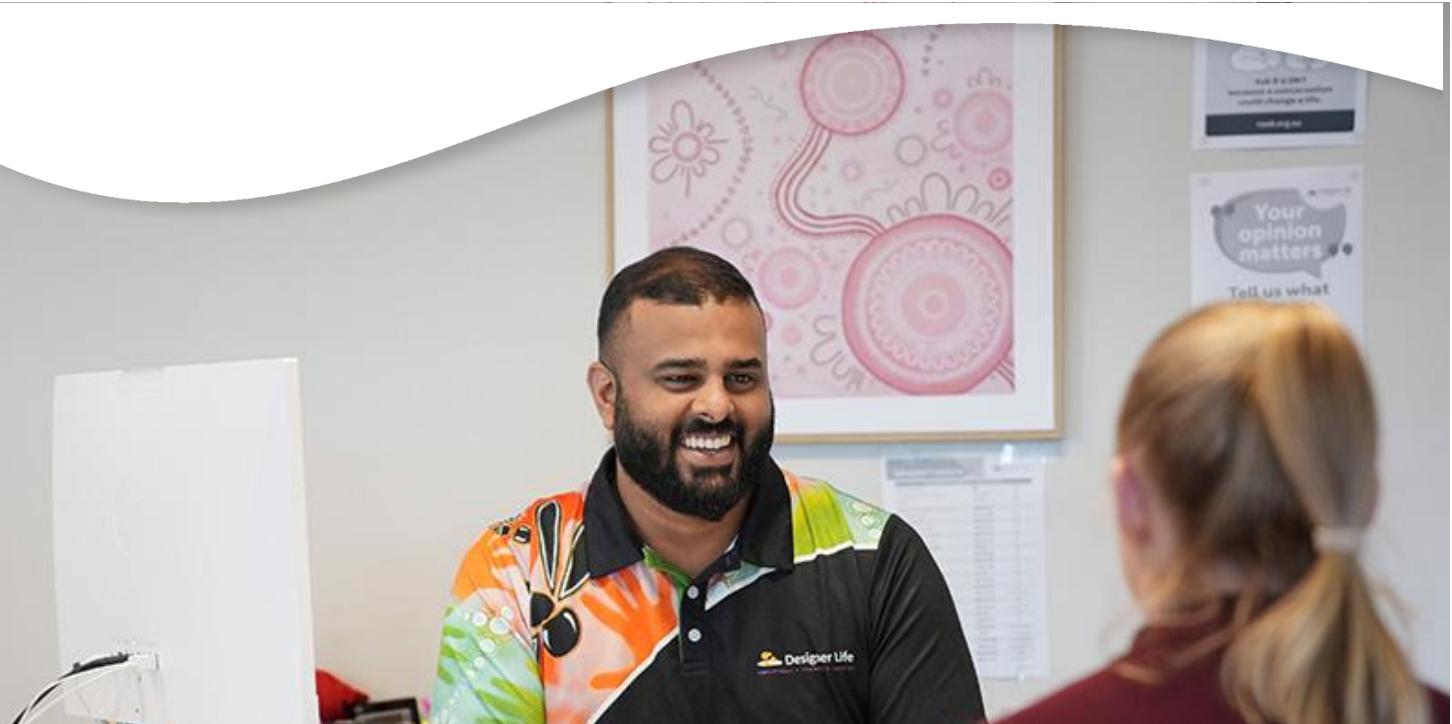

Practicing these policies guarantees that any student who meets Designer Life entry requirements will be accepted into any training programs. If any student or staff member have issues or questions regarding access and equity, or believes they have been treated unfairly, they will be directed to Designer Life's management for consultation.

Language, Literacy and Numeracy Assistance

Designer Life course information and learning materials contain written documentation and in some cases, numerical calculations.

Designer Life recognises that not all students will have the same level of ability in relation to reading, writing, and performing calculations. Prior to enrolment, all students will complete a language, literacy, and numeracy test in order to assess the student's level of ability. This process is to ensure that all students who commence a training program possess the skills required to understand the presented material and complete assessments.

Designer Life will endeavour to provide assistance to students having difficulty with language, literacy, or numeracy to accommodate their needs. In the event that a student's needs exceed the ability of Designer Life staff to assist, the student will be referred to an external support agency, so they have the opportunity to obtain the skills required to complete the training program.

STUDENT SUPPORT

Student support policy

Student wellbeing and support policy

Designer Life will make all reasonable efforts and utilise a variety of available methods to assist all students in their efforts to complete training programs. Designer Life will determine the support needs of individual students and provide access to the educational and support services necessary for the individual student to meet the requirements of the AQF qualification, skill set, or VET course as specified in training packages or VET accredited courses. Designer Life will continue to develop strategies to make support available where gaps are identified.

Trainers are responsible for ensuring that all students are aware they can contact their trainer, or other Designer Life staff members, in the event that they are experiencing difficulties with any aspect of their studies. Staff will ensure students have access to the full resources of Designer Life to assist them in achieving the required level of competency in all nationally recognised qualifications.

  - Engage in regular physical activity that suits your lifestyle, needs and level of ability.
  - Practice mindfulness or meditation to reduce stress.

Students with a disability

Designer Life has obligations under the Disability Standards for Education 2005 and the Disability Discrimination Act 1992 to support students with disability to access and participate in training and assessment on the same basis as students without disability. Students with a disability will be supported to disclose their disability to Designer Life if they choose to do so. Students can choose to disclose information at any time prior to or during their enrolment.

Disclosing this information is the personal choice of each student and is not a requirement of enrolment. However, students should note that providing information about the impact of your disability early the enrolment process will assist Designer Life to ensure that reasonable adjustments can be put in place as soon as possible.

Reasonable Adjustment

Designer Life recognises that some people are better suited to learning via teaching methods not usually obtained in the traditional classroom setting. With some minor adjustments to teaching and assessment methods, a student who is experiencing difficulty learning and achieving the desired results in the traditional setting may show considerable improvements.

The staff and management of Designer Life respect these differences among students and will endeavour to make any necessary adjustments to their methods in order to meet the needs of a variety of students.

Reasonable adjustment means adjustments that can be made to the way in which evidence of student performance can be collected. Whilst reasonable adjustments can be made in terms of the way in which evidence of performance is gathered, the evidence criteria for making competent / not competent decisions (and / or awarding grades) should not be altered in any way. That is, the standards expected should be the same irrespective of the group and / or individual being assessed; otherwise, comparability of standards will be compromised. For example, a student who has difficulty writing may be able to type their assessment instead or verbally answer questions. However, if the requirements of the unit mean that a student needs to demonstrate an ability to write information by hand, these adjustments would need to be reviewed.

Acceptable adjustments to teaching and assessment methods will vary depending on the needs of the student and the type of evidence that needs to be gathered.

The need for an adjustment and the nature of an adjustment will be determined in consultation with the student or the student's chosen advocates or representatives. This might include consultation on whether there is any other adjustment that would be no less beneficial for the student but less disruptive and intrusive for others.

Information about the student's disability will form part of an assessment of:

- What adjustment may be required, including assessing the nature and extent of the adjustment needed and assessing Designer Life's capacity to provide the adjustment; and
- To clarify the student's ability to comply with the requirements of their desired course or training program, ensuring that these requirements are genuine and non-discriminatory.

Designer Life staff will pursue any reasonable means within their ability to assist students in achieving the required competency standards. In the event that a student's needs exceed the capacity of the support services Designer Life can offer, they will be referred to an appropriate external agency.

Where it is determined that a student is unable to comply any genuine and non-discriminatory requirements of a course or training program, Designer Life will consult with the student and the student's chosen advocates or representatives about the next steps that can be taken.

Language, Literacy and Numeracy Assistance

Designer Life course information and learning materials contain written documentation and in some cases, numerical calculations.

Designer Life recognises that not all students will have the same level of ability in relation to reading, writing, and performing calculations. Prior to enrolment, all students will complete a language, literacy, and numeracy test in order to assess the student's level of ability. This process is to ensure that all students who commence a training program possess the skills required to understand the presented material and complete assessments.

Designer Life will endeavour to provide assistance to students having difficulty with language, literacy, or numeracy to accommodate their needs. In the event that a student's needs exceed the ability of Designer Life staff to assist, the student will be referred to an external support agency, so they have the opportunity to obtain the skills required to complete the training program.

DISCIPLINE

Designer Life makes every effort to practice cooperation and mutual respect in all internal and external dealings to uphold high quality, professional training, and assessment services. The same disciplined behaviour is expected of students as a contribution to a functional learning environment, and as a sign of respect to staff and fellow students.

Designer Life requires that all students observe the following principles whilst undertaking training and assessment:

- Respect other students and the Trainer/Assessor
- Feel free to contribute, but let everyone have their say
- Not to cause disruption to the training and assessment process
- All work should be the original work of the student
- Complete and submit all assessment material on time

All students are also asked to operate within the general guidelines of the policies and procedures as outlined here in the Student Handbook. Designer Life expects all students to conduct themselves with honesty and integrity in all their dealings with staff and other students. This is especially important in the verification that a student's work is genuinely their own. This environment of mutual respect and understanding is important to foster the learning process, and it is all of our responsibility to maintain.

Failure to uphold the policies and rules as described in this Student Handbook is considered to be misconduct and may result in disciplinary action. All notices and notes of verbal discussions relating to misconduct and counselling sessions will be placed on the individual's student file.

Designer Life Management advises any trainer or staff member who is dissatisfied with the behaviour or performance of a student that they have the authority to:

- Warn the student that their behaviour is unsuitable; or
- Advise the student to leave the room for break and return after a few minutes once they have modified their behaviour.

If a student wishes to object or lodge an appeal against the disciplinary action taken, they have the right and opportunity to follow the Designer Life complaint procedure. Designer Life staff are expected to maintain a professional and ethical working relationship with all other staff members, management, and students. Breaches of the disciplinary standards will result in discussion between the relevant trainer and Designer Life, and appropriate action will be taken.

STUDENT OVERVIEW

What courses are offered?

Please refer to the Qualifications section for a full list of courses currently offered by Designer Life.

How is training delivered?

Training courses with Designer Life are delivered using a combination of the following methods:

- Face-to-face classroom training
- Blended learning
- Online learning
- Workplace delivery

How long does a course take?

Each program has a specific course outline which details the units of competency to be studied, along with details of course dates and durations. Prospective students should ensure they have accessed the relevant course details prior to completing enrolment. Designer Life staff will ensure that all students are fully aware of course details and duration prior to finalising a student's enrolment.

Course Extension Policy

Applications for extensions to the standard enrolment period will be assessed on an individual basis.

Applications must be received in writing and must state the student's reasons for applying for the extension. Enrolment extensions may be granted where reasonable cause of inability to complete is provided.

The total period of the extension provided will depend on the individual circumstances of the student and the reason they have applied for the extension. However, students will only be able to apply for a maximum extension of six (6) months. Students will only be able to apply for a maximum of one (1) extension to their enrolment. Students will not be subject to additional fees when applying for an extension to their current enrolment.

If a student has applied and been approved for an extension to their enrolment period and has still not successfully completed their course at the conclusion of the extension their case will be reviewed by Designer Life management.

Student Attendance Policy

Attendance is an essential element of a student's program for face-to-face training courses. It is important that students try to arrive to class on time, including returning from morning and lunch breaks, as lateness interrupts other students and valuable work is missed. Training time should be seen as high priority.

Student Absenteeism Policy

Students are required to notify Designer Life team prior to the commencement of the face-to-face training sessions if they are unable to attend.

Students must abide these conditions as follows:

1. Students who are absent on the date of assessment must notify Designer Life of their inability to attend prior to the assessment time.
2. Students who know in advance that an assessment date cannot be met must inform Designer Life prior to the assessment date.

CLIENT SELECTION AND ENROLMENT PROCEDURE

Client selection

Enrolment and admission into some Designer Life training programs is subject to meeting certain prerequisite conditions and/or entry requirements. Specific details of the prerequisites pertaining to these training programs are contained in individual course information which is available in this handbook.

In the case that a potential student does not meet the prerequisite conditions and/or entry requirements, Designer Life staff will assist them in understanding the alternative options available to them. Any questions regarding these arrangements can be addressed by Trainers or Designer Life Management.

Initial Enquiry and Application

The Enrolment procedure commences when a student contacts Designer Life expressing interest in a training program(s). Designer Life staff will respond by dispatching by suitable means pre-enrolment information, information on the program(s) being considered and any other documentation which may be relevant.

Pre-course evaluation

A pre-course evaluation of each student is conducted. Questions are designed to identify the student's needs and will allow Designer Life staff members to evaluate any requirements the student may have to improve their learning experience and outcome.

Based on the information gathered through the initial application, interview and any other relevant correspondence and conversations. Applications will be assessed to ensure that the student meets any prerequisites and/or entry requirements that have been set for the selected course.

Designer Life staff and management will provide the student with advice on if their chosen course or training program is suitable for them. Students will be informed of successful enrolment and sent information on the course and their course induction. Students who do not meet the prerequisites for the selected course will be notified of their unsuccessful enrolment and invited to contact Designer Life to discuss their training needs and alternative opportunities.

FEES

Training programs with Designer Life will attract certain fees, the type of fees you need to pay, the amount you will need to pay and when you pay will vary.

Designer Life will never collect more than $1,500 in course fees from an individual student prior to commencing a course or in advance of any service delivered. Where less than $1,500 is collected prior to the commencement of training or where the total course fee is less than $1,500, a fee protection process is not required. These fees are paid by/charged to the student, a government agency, or the student's employer. This only applies where individual students pay fee through direct enrolment, this does not apply to situations where an organisation (e.g., the student's employer) pays course fees on behalf of the student.

Please see the Payment Terms section for more information on when and how course fees are charged to students.

The total fee payable for each course can be found in the Qualification section of this handbook, within the Student Handbook, and is listed on the individual course flyer for each program.

The RTO's fee policy is updated regularly so that both Designer Life and our clients are protected.

Designer Life provides the following fee information to each student:

- The total amount of all fees including course fees, administration fees, materials fees and any other charges;
- Payment terms, including the timing and amount of fees to be paid and any non-refundable deposit/administration fee;
- The nature of the guarantee given by Designer Life to complete the training and / or assessment once the student has commenced study in their chosen qualification or course;
- The fees and charges for additional services, including such items as issuance of a replacement qualification testamur and the options available to students who are deemed not yet competent on completion of training and assessment; and
- The refund policy.

After students have made payment on their course, further fees will not be charged for the following:

- Re-submission and re-assessment of course work and assignments; and
- No fee applies to produce a statement of attainment when the student has partially completed the training program and must withdraw.

Fee For Services Courses

Where a student is accessing a course without utilising any kind of government subsidy or funding they will be required to pay the full Fee For Service rate as advertised on our website, course flyer, and within this handbook.

The course fee is the maximum fee that may be charged to the student for their selected training program. It is Designer Life's policy that the course fee will be all-inclusive. Students will not be 'surprised' by unexpected requirements, fees, or expenses.

In certain situations additional fees may be charged, please see the Additional Fee section for more information.

Please see the "Fee For Service – Payment Terms" section for information on when Co-Contributions fees will be charged.

Co-Contributions Fees

Where a student is accessing a government subsidy or funding for their course, they may be required to make a contribution to the cost of training and assessment services, this is known as a Co-Contributions Fee.

The fee may be paid on behalf of the student by a third party unrelated to Designer Life (e.g., the student's employer or a Workforce Australia Provider), but it cannot be paid by or waived by Designer Life (whether directly or indirectly).

There are certain situations where students may be eligible to access concessional rates or fee exemptions (pending meeting eligibility criteria).

The amount of this fee can vary depending on which subsidy or funding program the student is accessing and if the student is eligible for credit transfers.

The below Co-Contributions Fee amounts apply:

Career Start – General Training Pathway	Non-Concessional: $50 Concessional: $35
Career Start – Traineeship Pathway	$1.40 per nominal hour for each unit of competency the student completes in their course. Where a student meets eligibility criteria for a partial fee exemption, they will be charged 40% of the standard fee.
Career Boost	Certificate Enrolments: Non-Concessional: $50 Concessional: $35
	Skill Set Enrolments: Non-Concessional: $15 per unit Concessional: $10 per unit

Please see the Co-Contributed Fee page on our website for more information on eligibility for concessions, partial exemptions, and full exemptions.

Please see the “Government Subsidised Course – Payment Terms” section for information on when Co-Contributed fees will be charged.

In certain situations additional fees may be charged, please see the Additional Fee section for more information.

Fee changes

Prior to a student enrolling, fees may be altered without notice. Once a student has completed enrolment, fees will not be subject to change for the normal duration of the course. If a course length is extended by the student then any fee increases will be required to be paid for the extended component of the course at Designer Life’s discretion.

Additional Fees

Software

Students may find it helpful to have access to a range of software in order to take part in training and assessment activities for their course. Designer Life recommends that students consider some of the free and safe-to-use alternatives to paid software.

- Spreadsheets: Google Sheets, LibreOffice, Apache OpenOffice
- Presentation: Google Slides, Canva, Prezi, LibreOffice

Vocational Placement and Work Experience Fees

There may be additional fees associated with obtaining clearance checks and training that apply to students undertaking Vocational Placement or Work Experience.

For students enrolling into Individual Support or Community Services courses that include mandatory vocational placement, many employers in these industries require workers to obtain a Blue Card, Disability Worker Screening (Previously known as the Yellow Card) and/or a Police Check, you may also be required to hold a current First Aid and CPR certificate.

Queensland has also adopted a “No Card, No Start” policy, this means that students enrolling into these courses will need to source, pay for these items, and successfully obtain them prior to undertaking vocational placement. Blue Cards and Disability Worker Screenings are free for students, however, the prices for Police Checks and First Aid/CPR courses will vary depending on the supplier you choose. Designer Life will assist you with the application process for a Blue Card and/or Disability Worker Screening.

You are required to pay the full amount of the Course fees even if you do not complete your Course, or if you fail to advise Designer Life of withdrawal from your Course within the refund periods as show in the Refund Policy.

Student request to cancel enrolment (Withdrawal prior to completion)

If a student advises Designer Life that they wish to cancel their enrolment before they have successfully completed their course the student will not be entitled to a refund. Statement of Attainment/s will be issued for any units that have been satisfactorily completed.

In lieu of cancellation, the student may defer their course study for up to 6 months from the initial enrolment date without additional charge.

Cancellation of a course by Designer Life

In the unlikely event that Designer Life cannot continue to offer a course and cancels the nominated course, a pro-rata refund of fees paid will be made to all students currently enrolled in the cancelled course, with refunds calculated on an individual basis, depending on how many units the student has yet to commence. The student will be notified directly if any changes in courses directly affect their enrolment or educational outcome.

- Course fees paid will be refunded in full and no statement of attainment will be issued on any unit; OR
- Course fees paid on any unavailable unit/s will be refunded; and a statement of attainment will be issued for satisfactorily completed units.

RECOGNITION OF QUALIFICATIONS

Credit Transfer

Credit transfer is the recognition of unit/s of competency that students have previously successfully completed. Credit may be obtained by students if they have previously completed units in courses or qualifications with other VET providers or with Designer Life. When credit is recognised, you don't need to repeat training or assessment for that unit.

To receive a credit transfer for a unit you must provide formal evidence that you've previously completed the unit (this includes if you have previously completed an earlier version of a unit which is equivalent). Formal evidence can be a qualification certificate or transcript, statement of attainment or your VET transcript.

Designer Life will recognise all verifiable AQF qualifications and statements of attainment issued by any other RTO, as well as verified VET Transcripts. If any ambiguity is detected when validating a student's certification, Designer Life will seek verification from the student or relevant RTO before recognising the evidence provided.

There is no reduction in fees for Fee for Service students if Credit Transfer is applied for or granted. Where a student is accessing a government subsidy or funding, pro-rata refunds may be applied to fees, the amount to be paid will be confirmed prior to enrolment.

How to apply for Credit Transfer

Students who believe that they are eligible for Credit Transfer should speak with our administration team prior to or at the time of enrolment, or at any time during their enrolment. Additionally, where our administration team identifies that a student may be able to receive a credit, we will let the student know.

Students will need to supply suitable evidence in order to claim a credit transfer, this may include:

- AQF qualification and record of results
- A Statement of Attainment
- Verified VET Transcript (USI Transcript)

If a student has lost evidence of their previously completed study, they should contact the RTO that issued the AQF qualification or Statement of Attainment. If the student has difficulty contacting the issuing RTO, or if that RTO has ceased operations, the student should contact the Australian Skills Quality Authority (ASQA) for assistance - www.asqa.gov.au.

When a student provides evidence for the purpose of applying for a credit transfer, a copy will be taken and kept on the student's file. Designer Life staff will verify the authenticity of the evidence provided and may request additional evidence.

To verify the authenticity of credit transfer evidence, Designer Life staff may:

- Ask to see an original copy of AQF qualification and record of results, or Statement of Attainment
- Ask for a certified copy of the evidence (i.e., a copy that has been witnessed and signed as true and correct by a Justice of the Peace or a Commissioner of Declarations)
- Contact the RTO that issued the original AQF qualification and record of results, or Statement of Attainment to verify the authenticity of the evidence
- Use the QR code on a VET Transcript to verify its authenticity

In the event that the authenticity of the evidence provided cannot be established, the application for a credit transfer may be refused. If this occurs, students will be offered an opportunity to provide suitable alternative evidence.

If the authenticity of evidence can be verified, Designer Life staff will inform the student that their application was successful and will apply the relevant credits. Staff will ensure the student is aware of and understands what component(s) of their training and assessment are affected.

RECOGNITION OF PRIOR LEARNING

Recognition of prior learning (RPL) means recognition of competencies currently held, regardless of how or where the learning occurred. These competencies may be attained through any combination of formal or informal training and education, work experience or general life experience.

In order to grant RPL, the assessor must be confident that the student is currently competent against the endorsed industry or enterprise competency standards or outcomes. The evidence may take a variety of forms and could include certification, references from past employers, testimonials from clients and work samples.

The assessor must ensure that the evidence is:

- Authentic – The assessor must be assured that the evidence presented for assessment is your own work.
- Valid – The assessor must be assured that you have the skills, knowledge, and attributes as described in the module or unit of competency and associated assessment requirements.
- Current – The assessor must be assured that the evidence demonstrates current competency. This means the evidence should be from the present or the very recent past.
- Sufficient – The assessor must be assured that the quality, quantity, and relevance of the evidence enables a judgement to be made about your competency.

Designer Life appreciates the value of workplace and industry experience and recognises that students will acquire vocational skills and knowledge from a variety of sources other than formal training. These skills are legitimate irrespective of how they were acquired and the RPL process is designed to provide validation of such relevant skills.

RPL Fees

Where a student undertakes the RPL process, this will attract an additional administration and assessment fee. This fee is in addition to the course fee listed in this handbook and on the course flyer.

RPL Fee: $1100

This fee covers the initial application, consultation, either in person or via phone, with a suitably qualified assessor, and the RPL assessment and (if successful) certification.

RPL Process

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) is a process that assesses an individual's formal and informal learning to determine the extent to which that individual has achieved the required learning outcomes, competency outcomes, or standards for entry to, and / or partial or total completion of a VET qualification.

Students who believe they have already obtained current skills and knowledge that would otherwise be covered in the qualification / unit of competency which they intend to attain, can advise Designer Life staff prior to enrolment or at any time during their course. The student's skills and knowledge will be assessed and validated, and where appropriate, units of competency acknowledged, and face-to-face training reduced.

As part of the Designer Life enrolment policy, students will be advised of the availability of RPL, what the process involves and how it relates to the attainment of the qualification. Students will be reminded of the availability of this option progressively throughout their time in training, in order to provide multiple opportunities for students to engage in the RPL process.

Students will be required to provide a variety of evidence that can be used to support an RPL application. Students will need to ensure that the evidence provided meets the Rules of Evidence, namely that it is valid, sufficient, authentic, and current.

Evidence may include:

- Primary Evidence: This is evidence that is provided “firsthand”, it has not been interpreted, it is factual and objective. This evidence may include work samples, recordings, records, or original documents, such as licenses, certificates, and academic transcripts.
- Secondary Evidence: This is evidence that is gathered after the fact and is often an interpretation, commentary, or evaluation of primary evidence. It may be considered less reliable than primary evidence. This evidence may include resumes or written references.

Ideally, students should provide a mixture of both Primary and Secondary Evidence to support their application. Your assessor will check the evidence provided and confirm whether further information is required or if your RPL application was successful.

UNIQUE STUDENT IDENTIFIER (USI)

The Unique Student Identifier (USI) scheme allows students to access a single online record of their VET achievements. The scheme also allows for reliable confirmation of these achievements by employers and other RTOs. Under the scheme each student enrolling into a VET course is required to hold a USI.

All accredited training reported against a student's USI will be recorded on their transcript. Students will have access to their transcript through the USI website.

Your USI transcript can be used to grant credit transfers.

Designer Life can only issue a qualification or statement of attainment to a student after the student has provided a verified USI, or Designer Life applies for a USI on behalf of the student. To avoid any delays in issuing certification documentation Designer Life will ensure that student's USIs are applied for, or will verify a supplied USI, at the time of enrolment.

Designer Life protects the security of all information related to USIs. Security measures are in place to protect both digital and hard-copy records from loss, damage, or unauthorised access. Designer Life stores paper-based records in locked cabinets. Digital records are backed up on a password protected Cloud system.

All AQF certification documentation issued by Designer Life is kept for thirty (30) years.

Information that does not appear on your USI transcript

Students should be aware that certain information may not appear on their USI transcript, or may be delayed from appearing:

- Nationally recognised training that is exempt from inclusion.
- Training delivered prior to 2015 will not appear on your USI transcript.
- Non-accredited training will not appear on your USI transcript.
- If you did not supply the correct USI to your training provider your course will not appear on your transcript until the correct USI is provided.
- USI transcripts are only updated quarterly, if you have recently enrolled into or completed training it might not be reflected yet on your current transcript and you will need to check again later in the year.

If you believe that training you completed with Designer Life is missing from your USI transcript when it should be listed, please get in touch with Head Office on (07) 3333 2055.

If you have completed training with another company and you believe it is incorrectly missing from your USI transcript, you will need to get in touch with the company that you completed training with directly.

Designer Life is unable to make amendments to data for courses that were completed with another RTO.

Access your USI transcript

Students are able to access and download or print copies of their transcripts through the USI website: www.usi.gov.au

If you are having any trouble accessing or viewing your transcript the USI office has created a how-to video which can be accessed here: <https://www.usi.gov.au/video/how-view-and-download-my-usi-transcript>

If you have any difficulties with your USI account or the USI website, you should contact the Office of the Student Identifiers Registrar directly on 1300 857 536.

Allowing Designer Life to access your USI transcript

Students are able to grant Designer Life access to view and download their USI Transcripts through the USI website: www.usi.gov.au

TRAINING AND ASSESSMENT

Designer Life is committed to meeting the requirements of the Standards for RTOs 2015, delivering high quality training and assessment services that exceed the expectations of their students. To ensure this, Designer Life has implemented processes for industry engagement and data collection and analysis within its operations to ensure provision of relevant training and assessment. The respective training strategies are subject to ongoing continuous improvement. Continuous improvement measures in this area respond to the results of data analysis and involve all internal and external stakeholder groups.

The quality and continuous improvement policy and procedure defines the methods of data collection and analysis. In order to provide high quality outcomes to their clients and students, Designer Life ensures that strategies for training and assessment are developed with effective consultation with industry and stakeholders.

PRINCIPLES OF TRAINING AND ASSESSMENT

Training and assessment strategies developed by Designer Life adhere to the following principles:

- Training and assessment strategies are developed for each qualification or short course that will be delivered and assessed
- All training programs require the development of a training and assessment strategy for full and partial completion of a qualification

- Each training and assessment strategy is developed in consultation with industry representatives, trainers, assessors, and key stakeholders
- Training and assessment strategies reflect the requirements of the relevant training package and will identify target groups
- Training and assessment strategies are validated annually through internal review procedures

Quality training and assessment principles

Designer Life will apply the Principles of Assessment and the Rules of Evidence as outlined in the Revised Standards for RTOs 2015.

Principles of assessment

To ensure quality outcomes, assessment should be:

- Fair
- Flexible
- Valid
- Reliable

Fair

Fairness in assessment requires consideration of the individual student's needs and characteristics, and any reasonable adjustments that need to be applied to take account of them. It requires clear communication between the RTO, the assessor, and the student to ensure that the student is fully informed about, understands and is able to participate in the assessment process, and agrees that the process is appropriate. It also includes an opportunity for the person being assessed to challenge the result of the assessment and to be re-assessed if necessary.

Flexible

To be flexible, assessment should reflect the student's needs. It needs to provide for recognition of competencies no matter how, where or when they have been acquired. Assessment should draw on a range of methods appropriate to the context, unit of competency, associated assessment requirements and the individual student.

Valid

Assessment is valid when the process is sound and assesses what it claims to assess.

Validity requires:

- Assessment against the unit/s of competency and the associated assessment requirements covers the broad range of skills and knowledge that are essential to competent performance
- Assessment of knowledge and skills is integrated with their practical application
- Assessment to be based on evidence that demonstrates that a student could demonstrate these skills and knowledge in other similar situations
- Judgement of competence is based on evidence of student performance that is aligned to the unit/s of competency and associated assessment requirements.

Reliable

Reliability refers to the degree to which evidence presented for assessment is consistently interpreted and results are consistent with assessment outcomes. Results must be comparable regardless of the assessor conducting the assessment.

Rules of Evidence

These are closely related to the principles of assessment and provide guidance on the collection of evidence to ensure that it is:

- Valid
- Sufficient
- Authentic
- Current

Valid

Evidence is considered valid when the assessor is assured that the student has the skills, knowledge, and attributes as described in the module or unit of competency and associated assessment requirements.

Sufficient

Sufficiency relates to the quality and quantity of evidence assessed. It requires collection of enough appropriate evidence to ensure that all aspects of competency have been satisfied and that competency can be demonstrated repeatedly.

Authentic

To accept evidence as authentic, an assessor must be assured that the evidence presented for assessment is the student's own work.

Current

In assessment, currency relates to the age of the evidence presented by a student. Evidence collected must be from either the present or the very recent past.

Training and Assessment Relevant to the Workplace

Whilst employment outcomes cannot be a guaranteed result of a training program, every effort is made to maximise relevant outcomes for students. Designer Life ensures that every opportunity to connect training and assessment within the workplace is utilised. Learning and assessment activities are designed in consultation with industry experts to ensure workplace relevance. Opportunities to expose students to "real-life" learning will be developed in consultation with the relevant workplace personnel where possible and responsibilities clearly communicated to all involved.

Students enrolled in a traineeship or apprenticeship program will be working for an employer within the industry.

Designer Life will:

- Involve workplace personnel in planning workplace programs, where they are relevant to the training and assessment program;
- Ensure that the training and assessment program makes full use of opportunities at the workplace;
- Monitor each student's progress and the support provided to them by workplace personnel;
- Consult with workplace personnel in the development of workplace training and assessment processes; and
- Inform workplace personnel of their training and assessment roles and responsibilities, and accept these responsibilities, where relevant to the training and assessment program.

Information from workplace personnel is used to continuously improve training and assessment. A number of programs that engage employers or other parties who contribute to each student's training, assessment, and support services to meet their individual needs are available.

ASSESSMENT POLICY

Designer Life acknowledges the critical role that assessment plays in determining the competency of students. In developing assessment (including RPL) for each qualification and unit of competency, the Chief Executive will ensure:

- Compliance with the assessment guidelines from the relevant training package, qualification, and unit of competency;
- Successful completion of assessment in accredited training will lead to a qualification or statement of attainment under the Australian Qualifications Framework (AQF);
- Assessment complies with the principles of competency-based assessment and informs the student of the purpose and context of the assessment;
- The rules of evidence guide the collection of evidence to support the principles of validity and reliability;
- The application of knowledge and skills is relevant to the standard expected in the workplace, including skills for managing work tasks, contingencies, and the job environment;
- Timely and appropriate feedback is given to students;
- Assessment complies with Designer Life's access and equity policy;
- All students have access to re-assessment on appeal; and
- Assessment is subject to a schedule of ongoing validation

Designer Life implements an assessment system that ensures that assessment (including Recognition of Prior Learning) complies with the assessment requirements of the relevant training package or VET accredited course. Designer Life recognises that each unit of competency contains assessment requirements relating to; performance evidence, knowledge evidence and assessment conditions.

STUDENT PROGRESS

Students have the right to request information about, or have access to, their own individual records. Designer Life Trainers and Assessors or Administration staff will provide the requested information or access. Students also have the right to request a hardcopy of their own individual file. Student files can be supplied as a printout from records retained within the Data Management System.

Please feel free to ask your Designer Life Trainer and Assessor or Administration staff at any time for a printout of your progress report.

CERTIFICATE ISSUANCE

When a student has successfully completed all components of their course, they will be issued with a Certificate or Statement of Attainment within thirty (30) calendar days, this period will commence from the date that their final unit of competency is assessed as competent or, where a student withdraws from their course prior to completion, the date of withdrawal.

In order to have successfully completed all components students must have:

- Been marked competent in all required units of competency; and
- Successfully completed any Vocational Placement and returned their fully complete logbook, where this a requirement for successful completion of their course.

Appeals Policy

The Designer Life appeals process is concerned with a student's right to request changes to decisions or processes of an official nature, usually in relation to academic or procedural matters.

In the case of a student's appeal against specific assessment decisions, the student should first discuss the decision(s) with the relevant trainer or assessor and request re-evaluation. The trainer and assessor will hear the student's appeal, make fair judgement to the best of their ability as to whether change(s) are required and then discuss their final decision with the student.

If the student is still dissatisfied with the trainer or assessor's decision, they have the right to take the appeal to the management team. The formal notice of appeal is required to comply with the following:

- The notice of appeal should be in writing and addressed to Designer Life for referral to the management team.
- Appeals should be submitted by the student within five (5) business days of notification of the outcome of the trainer or assessor's re-evaluation.
- The notice of appeal must be submitted within the specified timeframe otherwise the original result will stand. If a student's appeal needs to be deferred due to emergency circumstances, such as in the case of serious illness or injury, a medical certificate supporting the case must be forward to management. The notice of deferral must be submitted within three (3) business days of the conclusion date displayed on the medical certificate.

It is the responsibility of Designer Life management to ensure adherence to the appeal procedure and that resolution is sought in all reasonable circumstances. This includes informing and assisting students with the appeal procedure and supply of appeal forms.

All appeals will be reviewed at the monthly management meeting and, if appropriate, result in a continuous improvement process.

Student Access to Records

Students have the right to request information about or have access to their own individual records. Designer Life trainers and assessors or administration staff will provide the requested information or access. Students also have the right to request a hard copy of their own individual file that can be supplied as a printout from records retained within the data management system.
